Scam Jam Palm Bay Stopping Scammers in their Tracks

Helping Seniors & AARP team up to keep Seniors Safe
Free Scam Jam Training Program at Glenbrook Senior Living

Friday, February 13th, brings the popular and important free SCAM JAM workshop and Shred Truck event to Glenbrook Senior Living in Palm Bay.

Presented by Helping Seniors nonprofit, in cooperation with AARP Florida, SCAM JAM offers Seniors and their families a no-cost way to learn tips and techniques to stay safe from Scammers.

This 1000am-200pm Workshop is filled with information from subject matter experts including Elder Law Attorney Greg Schwendeman, of Rhodes Law Elder Law Attorney, Jackie Erickson, VP/Branch Manager PNC Bank, and Karen Civitate, AARP Fraud Watch Network volunteer, and many others, including law enforcement.

Elder Law Attorney Greg Schwendeman, Rhodes Law P.A., speaks at Scam Jam.

Lunch is provided, compliments of Glenbrook Senior Living, and each person completing the Scam Jam program graduates with their own Certificate of Completion as a registered "Scam Jammer."

Program topics include Avoiding Scams - the Best Ways to stay Safe, The Top 10 Scams that Seniors Face; Safe Banking Practices to Avoid Scams; and Updates from the AARP Fraud Watch Network.

Response to the previous Scam Jam event shows that Seniors find the workshop worthwhile and highly recommended for those who want to steer clear of the scammers and keep their nest egg intact!

Scam Jam Workshops became a reality as Helping Seniors found more and more Senior Information Helpline calls were regarding scams and potential scams.

Vicki Moore, Moore Insurance Solutions, on steering clear of Medicare scams.

In the words of Will Schiener, Florida Public Attorney, District 18, who spoke at a recent Scam Jam event in Viera, "The best way to fight most scams is to help people protect themselves before they fall victim. For your state attorney, it was gratifying to talk with about 75 engaged residents about avoiding the latest scams targeting seniors during ScamJam at The Brennity in Viera. Thanks to organizers Helping Seniors & AARP Florida."

The workshop, runs 10am-2pm Friday, February 13th at Glenbrook Senior Living, 815 Briar Creek Blvd, in Palm Bay, and is followed by a free Shred It event, open to the public (even those not registered for Scam Jam) 2pm-4pm on site - a great opportunity to securely dispose of sensitive documents no longer needed.

Lunch is included and all of Scam Jam is free, space is very limited. RSVP's required - please call Helping Seniors (321) 473-7770.
